Rear Admiral E. M. Zacharias
4444 47th Street, N. W.
Washington 16, D. C.

Dear Admiral Zacharias:

I regret that I have been unable to get immediate permission to forward you the copy of the Foreign Radio Broadcasts Daily Report which contains an excerpt from a broadcast from Moscow in Polish to Europe on November 1, 1947 at 10:58 a.m. EST. The remark in which your name was mentioned is quoted below:

"The retired Admiral Zacharias published a new series of provocative fabrications in the UNITED NATIONS WORLD. Throwing mud on the democratic European countries, the brave admiral asked the United States to produce such weapons that, as he said, would be able to (rid) from the surface of the globe the last vestiges of human animal and vegetable life."

Sincerely yours,

FOIAb3b

Colonel, USA (Ret)
